ADVANCE PASSENGER INFORMATION

The Home Office (UK Border Agency) have now placed a legal requirement on airline carriers who operate aircraft in and out of any UK airport. All airline carriers now have to electronically submit detailed passenger data to the UK Border Agency, prior to any passenger travelling. Hence, the information below is required and must be provided for each passenger, at least 7 days before departure. Passengers who do not provide this information are unlikely to be allowed to travel by the airline.

Data Protection Statement

Please be assured that we have measures in place to protect the personal booking information held by us. This information will be passed on to the principal and to the relevant suppliers of your travel arrangements. The information may also be provided to public authorities such as customs or immigration if required by them, or as required by law. Certain information may also be passed on to security or credit checking companies. If you travel outside the European Economic Area, controls on data protection may not be as strong as the legal requirements in this country. We will only pass your information on to persons responsible for your travel arrangements. This applies to any sensitive information that you give to us such as details of any disabilities, or dietary/religious requirement. (If we cannot pass this information to the relevant suppliers, whether in the EEA or not, we will be unable to provide your booking.) In making this booking, you consent to this information being passed on to the relevant persons.
